

Leading Learning: Checklist for Collaborative Library Learning Commons'

Based on Leading Learning: Standards of Practice for School Library Learning Commons

Standard: Collaborative Engagement to Empower Communities of Learners

a) Vision for Learning:

- School explores Learning Commons to address learning needs
- LLC is evolving as a whole school approach to collaborative learning
- LLC drives collaborative learning in school
- LLC builds learning communities. Responsive to school, district and global changes

b) Design for Collaboration

- LLC is welcoming
- LLC supports collaborative learning
- LLC has technology infrastructure that supports collaboration
- Infuses technology, virtual spaces, into learning experiences
- Models and celebrates collaborative knowledge building, play, innovation, creativity

c) Partners in Collaborative Learning

- Works with teachers to to design learning experiences
- Works with teachers to design collaborative learning experiences, techniques and strategies
- Works with teachers to build habits of mind and skills for collaborating
- Designs challenges to empower student-led collaborative learning. Students build new learning networks

d) Student and Community Partnerships

- Students and community are welcome members of the LLC
- Students and community contribute talents to building school culture
- Students and community expertise are utilized to help others learn
- Students and community lead special projects and initiatives

e) School Administration Partnerships

- Administration works collaboratively to support learning in the LLC
- Administration works collaboratively to develop and implement goals and vision
- Administration works collaboratively to engage school community in participatory learning in the LLC
- Administration works collaboratively to lead school improvement through LLC